Dear Mr. Temianka,

It has just come to my attention that your letter of December 10th has not been answered, and I want to apologize for the delay.

It was so kind of you to invite me to play with your symphony orchestra, but I am sure you will understand that I must regret for this year. Perhaps you will give me a rain check for another time.

I enjoyed meeting Dr. Lester Morrison at Luciana Avedon's dinner party in Rome last year and I do hope you will give him my regards when you next see him.

I was so impressed with your achievements in your brochure and think what you are doing is wonderful. Thank you again for your very thoughtful invitation.

Sincerely yours,

Joan B. Kennedy
